1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the theoretical aspects of the problem. It is shown that the problem is equivalent to a problem in the theory of differential equations. The main result of this part is the theorem that the problem is solvable if and only if the following conditions are satisfied: (1) the function is continuous; (2) the function is bounded; (3) the function is differentiable; (4) the function is satisfies the boundary conditions. The proof of this theorem is given in the next part of the paper.

2. In the second part of the paper, the problem is solved for a specific case. It is shown that the problem is solvable if and only if the following conditions are satisfied: (1) the function is continuous; (2) the function is bounded; (3) the function is differentiable; (4) the function satisfies the boundary conditions. The proof of this theorem is given in the next part of the paper.
